The challenge: War of the Worlds 2 episode 2 began with Idris choosing to stay with Team Britain even though he knows how well Team USA performs. Zahida's grandmother also died unexpectedly, so she decided to leave the competition and be with her family. Peith quit the show after an argument with Barr when he was too loud while she was trying to sleep. However, a contestant still went home at the end of the episode. Who? Keep reading to find out. Georgia Harrison, Stephen Burr, Johnny Bananas, Nani Gonzalez and Kyle Christie | Terry Scott/SOPA Images/LightRocket via Getty Images Which team won the Mysterious Rainbow Challenge? In the competition, the teams had to swim across a lake and collect letters. After that, they had to place the letters on a board and understand four-letter words. Then, a player is launched into the lake from a giant arc to retrieve a hidden puzzle and solve it using the words from the board. Wes, an excellent swimmer who prides it on every time there's a swimming challenge, has the disease. However, he still outdent everyone and returned his letter much faster than his teammates. One team for Team USA finished first, allowing the other team to collect their letters. Although everyone on the U.S. team fought relentlessly for the leadership role, they devised a successful strategy to place their letters on the board first, then launch Jordan from the archery, solving the puzzle while he swam. Once again, Team USA has reeled out the victory. When T.J. asked who would lead the tribunal, Kem immediately spoke and appointed herself, rubbing Tori the wrong way. She chose Ashley and Polly to join her, upsetting the latter because he wanted to be protected next week when it's eliminating a guy. Who's the Great Britain team nominated? Before she took part in the challenge, Jenny, a fitness and body coach, led a small workout class. She was impressed with Georgia's athleticism, but Jenny noticed big t couldn't always keep up. Therefore, Team Great Britain has already considered throwing the London native into liquidation. During the challenge, the team also noticed that Esther wasn't in the best physical shape. Georgia, which wanted to register, informed Big T that the group was considering her and Esther for the nomination. While they were discussing it as a group in front of the tribunal, Kylie asked her staff why only Big T and Esther were in conversation about impeachment rather than two other rookies, Jenny and Nicole. The girls offered to throw their names in the mix, but eventually the majority voted big tee. She then asked that the tribunal let her anyone but Jenny compete against the impeachments. Who Went Home in The Challenge: War of the Worlds 2 Episode 2? Before the nominations and the proof field, Kylie. It's rumored that Georgia thinks she's doesn't get hurt because of her incredible performance last season as a rookie. Killa Kam confronted Georgia about what her friend said, but the Love Island star denied it. Later, Georgia went outside by the pool and got mad because she felt she couldn't protect herself from the bad things people say about her at home. A number of Team USA members wanted to vote for a big player in the UK to take them out early in the game. Because Georgia is one of team Britain's strongest competitors and has been at the centre of the drama, the tribunal unanimously chose the Essex Wild to take on Big T. To prove the impeachment ground, the girls had to push a dumpster full of rocks and a torch on top of their opponent's side and light their fuse. Josh, on Team USA but romantically involved with Georgia, has rooted loudly for her, annoying some of his teammates. After a grueling nearly two-hour battle, Georgia eventually defeated Big T. As a winner, she could have chosen to switch teams. However, Georgia has made it clear that she never will. Who's going to go home next? World War II lasted six years in Europe and eight years in the Pacific. American involvement in the war lasted four years from December 1941, when Japan attacked Pearl Harbor until 1945, when Japan and Germany were defeated. Germany's invasion of Poland in September 1939 sparked the war in Europe. The war began in the Pacific in July 1937 when Japan invaded After being surrounded by Soviet forces, Germany surrendered in May 1945, bringing an end to the war at the European Theatre. In Asia, the war came to an end in September 1945 with Japan surrendering after detonating two U.S. atomic bombs over the cities of Hiroshima and Nagasaki. The war pitted the Axis powers - Germany, Italy, Japan, Bulgaria, Hungary and Romania - against allied powers - Britain, France, the Soviet Union, China, the United States and other countries. The most destructive war in history, civilian and military casualties totaled about 50 million. The Allied victory sparked the creation of the United Nations, the emergence of the United States and the Soviet Union as world powers and the Cold War between the two. Dough Boys was the nickname given to the U.S. Expeditionary Force that participated in the later years of World War I. Before the Americans arrived in Europe, the wording only applies to Hir, but at some point between April 1917 and November 1918, the word expanded to include all American armed forces. The term was not used in the degrading sense and it held diaries and letters of an American serviceman, as well as newspapers. The Dough people helped change the course of the war, because while they were still supposed to reach their many millions before the war ended, the sheer fact that they were coming at all helped keep its Western alliance intact and fighting in 1917, allowing them to cling on until victories won in 1918 and the war ended. These victories were achieved, of course, with the assistance of U.S. forces, as well as many soldiers and supporters from outside Europe, such as Canadians and Anzac soldiers (Australia and New Zealand). Western allies have sought American help since the war began, but this was initially given in trade and financial support, which often misses history (David Stevenson's 1914 to 1918 is the best starting point for this). It was only when German submarine attacks on U.S. shipping triggered America's accession to the war, decisively (although the U.S. president was accused of wanting to put his country in war so he wouldn't stay out of the peace process!). The true origin of the term Doughboy is still a discussion within historical and military circles of the U.S., but it dates back to at least the American-Mexican War of 1846 to 1847. An excellent summary of the theories can be found if you want to pursue U.S. military history but in short, no one knows for sure. Getting covered in dust while walking so seemed to be doughy looked among the best, but cooking practices, uniform style and more were cited. Indeed, no one knows how the course of World War I gave the term dough boy to the entire U.S. expeditionary force. However, when an American soldier returned to Europe en route during World War II, the term Doughboy disappeared: these soldiers were now GI's and will be for decades to come. Dough boy became so Win with World War I, and again no one really knows why. He might be interested in pointing out that dough boy was also the nickname of an inanimate object, a form of flour-based knots that partially evolved into the doughnut, and was in use until the late 18th century. This could be where the soldier's dough boy's name began, which was passed on to the soldiers, perhaps as a way of looking at them from the north initially. Them.
